Pearson School Board (also) believes that the school board's administrators, staff, parents, students and all those present in the school's environment have a responsibility to ensure that the right to be safe and secure is upheld. - Possible interventions to establish partnerships with parents: identify students with behavioral difficulties – school Principal/teacher makes initial contact at the beginning of the year to discuss how ‘we’ want the year to be successful for the student. For students with behavioral challenges, call home when positive behaviours are seen.

4. Procedures for Reporting:

All members of the Kingsdale Community are entitled to a safe, non-threatening and easily accessible process for reporting incidents of bullying or violent behavior regardless of whether they are victims, witnesses or a reporting party. It is understood that our process is designed to facilitate and encourage, not impede, the reporting of incidents.

Proposed Steps (Students)

- Kingsdale guarantees confidentiality for parties reporting incidents of bullying and/or violence. At the same time, we guarantee that the identified perpetrator is fully apprised of the details of the report made against him/her.
- Any Kingsdale student who witnesses an act of bullying or violence is responsible to tell a staff member at school, and an adult at home so as to allow those adults to follow-up with reporting as they see fit and necessary.

Furthermore, we are committed to considering all available facts in a timely and efficient manner.

Proposed Steps

- All Kingsdale staff will be committed to a zero indifference policy with respect to acts of violence or bullying or reports of said acts. All acts or reports will be investigated.
- A Kingsdale staff member who observes or is made aware of a possible act of bullying or violence must intervene to assess the situation and take action if deemed necessary.
- If the situation does not threaten the staff member who is a witness or who has been told of an incident, he/she must intervene immediately.
- If the staff member considers his/her intervention in the situation successful, student is not referred to administration. However, an intervention report must be filed and submitted to principal if the staff member considers the incident to be one of violence or bullying.
- The staff member may determine that the student involved in the bullying and/or violent behaviour should be sent directly to administration, depending on the severity of the incident.
- At the discretion of the school principal or his/her delegate, police intervention may be requested in the form of a 911 emergency call or a call for support from the school's Socio-Community Officer.

- Yellow Behaviour Report incidents are considered minor and are only reported to school administration in the event of repeated offenses. Details of the incident and intervention of the teacher are recorded on the Yellow Behaviour Report for future reference if necessary.
- Yellow Behaviour Reports are sent home with student for reflection along with parents, then signed and returned to classroom teacher.
- Once a student receives three Yellow Behaviour Reports it must be signed and returned to Principal after appropriate home reflection has been carried out. Note: All Kingsdale reports regarding incidents of violence and/or bullying must be forwarded to the appropriate Regional Director in cases where students are excluded from their regular course of studies as a consequence of their actions.

6. Measures to Protect Confidentiality:

As part of the investigative and follow-up processes, Kingsdale is committed to maintaining fair, accurate and confidential records of each reported incident of bullying or violence, regardless of the investigative outcome. These records will include specific details on the incidents in question, the steps taken by the school as a consequence of its investigation and indication of intended follow-up. The perpetrator is told of the report, the incident is discussed and a consequence is given.

The Kingsdale Community recognizes that once the initial investigation and response process has been completed, supervisory or support measures may need to be put in place for the perpetrator, the victim and, when deemed necessary, the witnesses to an act of bullying or violence. The extent of these follow-up measures will depend upon the nature of the incident and the degree to which it is believed that long-term intervention is necessary.

Proposed Steps
